the MORE you will raise!

Welcome to the Give & Grow Program!

We are so thrilled to have you on board.

- Remember, you can share our social media posts to your accounts too! (@BigYellowBag)

March:

- Even though it still “winter” – people are keen to get out in their yards.
- The more you promote your code, the more chances that they will use it when they are ready to place their order.
- First day of Spring is a great chance to promote too.
- Easter long weekend usually has people out in their yards too!
- This is all about planning and preparation. We want them to think of only BigYellowBag when they start.

May:

- This is the last BIG month for gardeners.

Reply to previously sent email so the information is still there.

Hi again,

I just wanted to remind you about a great way that you can help <insert group name here> this gardening season – when you purchase a BigYellowBag® of soil or mulch.

As I mentioned before, if you need high-quality products for the garden, we suggest you consider using BigYellowBag because $10 from every bag purchased (using our code) comes right back to <insert group name>! Whether you're just starting a garden, working on the lawn, or needing to top up, please consider our partnership with BigYellowBag®. The best part is that you can get what you need, AND help out <insert group name here>.

SOCIAL MEDIA TOOLS:

We have created a HUGE variety of images and assets you can use for your social media accounts. Just download the image, and in the copy area of your 'post' you can mention your code. FOLLOW-UP POST

This can be useful when the upcoming weather is looking great, and people might be out gardening. Or if you see a lot of posts on your own feed about people who are out doing work in their yard.

Hi Friends – I just wanted to remind you all about this great program we're participating in this year... BigYellowBag®'s Give and Grow Program! For every bag of soil or mulch that you buy, we get $10 donated back to us. Make sure you use our unique code <insert code here> in support of <insert your organization's name>! Thank you for your support! #giveandgrow

See a bunch of examples enclosed with ways you can make this work for you!
Remember, stay true to your tone and voice when posting.

Tips for using Facebook & Instagram to promote the Give & Grow Program and how your customers/donors can help:

- Use an eye-catching image, something that will make your followers stop scrolling – key words like SAVE, DONATE, etc, will help!
- Mention your unique code and the sale in as many posts as possible, even if you've posted about something before this could be the first time someone sees it. Tag us too – we will re-share and re-post!
- Plan posts around weather and potential other sales that are occurring for BigYellowBag. Your code can be stacked onto any existing sales, so if BigYellowBag is already running a $20 off promotion, your followers would save $20, plus the $5 = $25 total saving per bag. Note: Discount dates are sensitive, so if you are sharing this information please make it VERY clear when the larger discount runs out.
- ALWAYS post on all social media channels available, if your organization has an Instagram and a Facebook page, post on both as you may have a different demographic following on each, it will reach a wider audience.
- Post multiple times throughout the sale period, the more times you post the more people you reach and the more times your code is used. We ALWAYS see a surge or increase in sales, when a new post is shared.
- Post early and post often. Get the information out there early so your followers have it in the forefront of their mind when they start thinking of their gardens. Most people will start thinking about gardening late February/early March. The ideal time to target them is in February so you are out there before they even consider buying elsewhere.
- Don't flood your feed with the same post every time. You want to keep it current & relevant. Post regular stuff, and then post stuff about the program. Intersperse sale posts with other posts you are making.

Sample Social Media Posts from Previous Partners:

How the same post appears of Facebook and Instagram

This is an example of using an eye catching photo to get someone's attention and then explaining everything in the text of the post itself. If you are communicating multiple different messages at one time this may be the best option to use.

Always include a link or the URL to the website so they can click & book right away: www.BigYellowBag.com

This post tells everything in the picture while additionally informing your followers of an existing sale if they purchase before a certain date.

Note: the pictures are a set size, you do not want to include TOO much information in the image itself, as it can be hard to read.

- This organization created their own graphic while incorporating something they know will have their followers stop scrolling (pets!). They also explain the sale and how to order in the text of the post.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q: Is there any cost to me?

A: Absolutely none. We will provide you with printed materials (if needed) and everything else you need to promote this. You do not have to pay for anything.

Q: What do I have to do?

A: Once you've confirmed your participation on the Give & Grow program, you just have to promote this deal to your groups' parents/members/friends/family/co-workers/colleagues – whoever! Remember to ensure that your group members/parents promote to their networks too! It can be as successful as you want it to be. If you promote the heck out of it, the more bags people will order using your code, and the more money you get for your group.

Q: Is this too good to be true?

A: No! We promise this is a totally legitimate offer. We want to help out members of our community with the fundraising efforts, this is our way to give back.

Q: Does my group get the full $10 from every bag that is purchased using my code?

A: Yes, they do! Once all the bags are redeemed, we will cut your group a cheque for $10 per bag. So, if your coupon code resulted in 50 bags sold, you will get $500. It's that easy.

Q: What if my contacts receive their own discount codes in the mail too?

A: They can totally take advantage of any sale offer they receive. But it's important that your contacts use the $5 discount code YOU provided to them, otherwise the donation will not be matched to your group. They cannot use more than one $5 discount code.

Q: When do we get the cheque?

A: We will cut the cheque for your group at the end of our regular season. You should expect to receive your donation payment in the first week of July. Note: please ensure you have completed the form found on page 2 of this document and sent it back to us for our files.

Q: How will I know how many donations our group is getting?

A: At the end of each month (April, May & June) we will be able to send you quick note that outlines how many donations you have to date. Please let us know if you'd like to opt-in to this.

Q: What's the catch?

A: There is no catch – if you want to raise money for your group, you simply promote this program (and your unique code) & wait for the donations to come. The more you promote, the more successful it will be for you.
